LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO NOV. 20.

EASTERN STATES.

Arrival of the Russian Fleet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The Russian frigate S. V. Ellan entered the lower bay at noon yesterday, attended by the revenue cutter Northerner. On approaching the American squadron at the Horseshoe, she fired a national salute of twenty-one guns, which was responded to by the Congress, Severn, Iroquois and Kansas, each vessel dipping colors as she passed to anchorage. The Grand Duke appeared on deck and bowed repeatedly to salutes of American officers. The frigate met with a storm off Hatteras, which lasted until Friday night, when an observation showed her forty miles off Cape May. A pilot was taken on board at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon off Barnegat. The vessel received no damage and did not ship at sea.

Prince Alexis was dressed in the simple uniform of a Lieutenant. He is tall, strongly built, and has the air of a gentleman; has a clear complexion, light hair and whiskers, and blue eyes. He speaks English quite fluently, but appears to prefer French.

The Russian Minister, Catacazy, went this afternoon on board the frigate as the guest of the Duke.

Collector Murphy, Henry Clews and other gentlemen, will proceed to the frigate at 9 o'clock A. M. to-morrow in a revenue cutter.

The Grand Duke will be serenaded to-morrow evening by the 9th Regiment Band.

President Grant was officially informed by Admiral Rowen by telegraph of the arrival of the Grand Duke.

More about the Grand Duke.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—A rain storm prevails this morning which bids fair to last all day. The probability therefore is, that the Grand Duke's reception will be postponed. No reception formalities were offered him yesterday. He remained all day on board the vessel.

All the fleet which is yet in the lower bay will come up the harbor led by the reception steamer Powell. The Russian flag ship will be flanked by the yachts of the New York Yacht Club, and the United States steamers will bring up the rear. All will be decorated with Russian and American flags. When the Grand Duke is taken on board the reception steamer the whole fleet, together with all forts in the harbor, will fire salutes. A grand procession will escort him up Broadway, and as he passes Trinity Church chimes will peal forth a Russian national anthem, followed by American, and bunting will be displayed from buildings on Broadway.

The New York Herald again announces that it has authority for saying that Horace Greeley is to be appointed a member of the Park Commission.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Official Business.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Intelligencer says Gen. Howard will recommend in his next report the discontinuance of the Freedmen's Bureau.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—The bark D. C. Murray, from Honolulu, brings several more officers of the whaling fleet and some particulars of disasters to different vessels. Many of the sailors from the wrecked fleet have went to work on the sugar plantations, much to the relief of the planters, who were greatly in need of more laborers. A new fleet was expected to be fitted out at New Bedford on receipt of the news of the disaster and that these sailors would join it at Honolulu.

It is reported that Wm. Woodward, of Napa, who lost heavily on Nell Flaherty in her running race against Atchinson, last week, has bought the mare for $5,000 and matched her against Atchinson for $2,500 a side, mile heats, three in five. The race comes off at the State Agricultural Association's race track at Sacramento, two weeks from to-day.

The flagship California will sail for the Mexican coast Wednesday morning.

The Pensacola will sail for Honolulu some time next week.

The weather is warm, cloudless and very foggy; light south wind. The fog is so dense on the bay that vessels are in constant danger of collision.

The Oakland ferry steamer on her first trip this morning, brought up at Meigs' wharf, having missed the front entirely.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—The prosecutions of the lottery cases are being pushed with all possible bitterness and attract much attention. Judge Lake to-day dismissed seventeen of the indictments on demurrer and discharged the sheriff of Sacramento county from the order for arrest for contempt of court in the case of the People against Geo. W. Dixon, B. F. Crocker et al. He said: "The indictment charges defendants with printing, advertising and publishing in this county an advertisement of a lottery. The indictment certainly charges an offense under section 5, but if the fact should be that the printing was done in Sacramento, as intimated by the District Attorney, I have doubts if the proofs would sustain the charge. However, the District Attorney will judge as to whether he will try the case. The demurrer is overruled."

Nine persons summoned as jurors and failing to appear were each fined $250.

Two gentlemen have donated two fine trotting horses to the Protestant Orphan Asylum, and they will be sold at auction for the benefit of the institution to-morrow.

Col. Von Schmidt has bought the British iron ship Tolacera as she lies embedded in the sand at San Raymon Bay, Lower California, and will send the schooner Good Templar with machinery and apparatus for getting her off. She is reported uninjured, though stripped of her rigging; and as he only pays $1,000 for her, he has a chance of clearing $50,000 in the operation.

NEWS CONDENSATIONS.

The Darien Ship Canal project contemplates thirteen locks on one side and seven on the other.

Charles Francis Adams sailed from Boston on the 14th for Geneva. He goes to attend the Conference on the Alabama claims.

The National Capitol, had it been built at the rate paid for the New York Court House, would have cost about as much as the present national debt.

The British Government has granted a pension of three hundred pounds to the children of Dr. Livingstone, the explorer. Livingstone, when last heard from, was slowly making his way toward the coast.

A dispatch from Chicago, 14th, gives this: Two hundred and forty six houses have been finished within the last two days. No less than 4,107 persons find shelter in the barracks, and 21,050 in houses furnished by the Relief Committee.

The San Francisco Chronicle of the 15th has a dispatch from Salt Lake which gives an account of a conversation with a leading Mormon. This "saint" says he will not voluntarily give up his wives, but he is determined, "whatever the sacrifice," to abide by the law. He says he loves his many wives, and "it will be hard" if he has to give them up.

In a letter in the Times, from Persia, an English official states that the people there are more emaciated than ever. At least two thousand five hundred besiege the English Embassy for food every morning, and in their rush actually crushed two women to death. Infants and young children are lying about the streets scarcely recognizable as human beings.

At Kenosha (Wis.) on the 14th, E. F. Morris, a well-known citizen, who had at various times been elected to city offices and who was a man of intelligence, took his rifle and shot his wife, killing her instantly, and deliberately reloaded his gun and shot himself, living but a few moments after receiving the fatal shot. No sufficient reason can be assigned for the fatal deed.

OREGON.

J. B. Harker has started up his large flouring mill at Dayton.

The railroad surveyors have reached Oakland in Douglas county.

The Circuit Court is in session in Yamhill county, with over sixty cases on the docket.

A new schooner of fifty tons is nearly ready to launch at Tillamook. She belongs to G. W. Miller, and will be sent to San Francisco for fishing.

J. J. Burton of North Yamhill, while out shooting geese last week, met with a serious accident. His gun burst and destroyed most of one of his hands.

Nine years ago a man crossed the Yamhill river at Dayton, and having no money to pay his ferriage said he would pay next time he crossed. Last week he crossed again and kept his word.

The Dallas Republican relates a case where a wretch in Polk county attempted to seduce a girl of seventeen, but was unsuccessful. He then tried to ravish her, but she proved more than a match for him. Finally he drugged her and succeeded in his purpose. The fellow is to be prosecuted.

F. M. Stow of Yamhill county was killed last week by a falling tree. He was clearing some land by burning the trees down. One of them falling unexpectedly, it caught him before he could get out of the way, breaking both legs, a thigh, his back and crushing his skull. He was an old citizen of Yamhill and leaves a large family.

From the Roseburg Plaindealer: We learn that the steamer Pelican, which plies between San Francisco and the Umpqua, on her last trip out of the latter port, struck the bar, in which position a breaker swept over her, carrying into the sea a quantity of freight for Crescent City and other southern ports, which was temporarily stowed on deck. The vessel, however, got off safely, but this part of the cargo was a total loss.

THE TERRITORIES.

There are 245 school children in Olympia.

The Olympia Transcript wants to run Gen. Sprague for Delegate to Congress. A good suggestion.

Port Townsend is trying to get rid of her municipal charter. She finds it don't pay to be a city and prefers to be a village.

A great sale of logs and spars, seized by the land office at Olympia, took place a few days ago. They brought very little, as loggers and mill men decline in these cases to bid against the persons from whom the logs are seized.

The terminus excitement about Steilacoom still continues, and squatters on the unproductive gravel of Nesqually Plains are about as thick as grasshoppers, in some places being three or four deep. There has been a tremendous run on the Olympia land office.

Assayers have finally found out how to treat the tin ore from Ogden. They have no trouble now in making assays, and the results to them are more surprising than any one else. About 30 per cent. of metal, of which the greater part was tin, was shown by one assay.

In the new steam transportation company organized at Puget Sound several N. P. R. R. men are principals. They are fitting up the Cyrus Walker to run in connection with the North Pacific. The steamer New World, now at San Francisco, will be brought up to run between Olympia and Victoria.

On the 4th inst. a Montana miner named Wm. Cleghorn was buried by the caving of a drift in which he was working. One hip joint was dislocated and his right leg crushed above the ankle. In this condition he remained five and a half days before he was discovered, when he was rescued and it is thought will live. Such endurance is almost without a parallel.

The surveyors of the Northern Pacific Railroad have finished the surveys in the Yellowstone Valley, and report that they have found a route through it surpassing their most sanguine expectations. Before many years we shall undoubtedly see a large and prosperous settlement in that valley. It is said that there is as great an extent of good land there as in the Sacramento Valley.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Wherever Democracy flourishes there is a tendency to Tammany societies and corrupt rings. This fact is so noticeable as to make the people fear to have it come into power in the national capital.

Jersey City, a stronghold of the Democracy, vies with New York in corruption and thievery. Prominent Democratic officials, who a few years ago were bankrupt, now count their wealth by millions. The most outrages, abuses of swindling and theft are discovered among these politicians, and yet the Democracy keeps them in power, and has re-elected them to the positions which they now disgrace. The poor stool-pigeons who acted as the go-betweens for these villains are punished, while the great thieves are allowed to run at large.

Senator Garrett Davis, of Kentucky, has been moved to make a speech in vindication of simon pure Democracy, as enunciated in the resolutions of '98. When Mr. Davis essays to address his countrymen, whether in the Senate or on the stump, he makes a large demand on the time of his hearers and on the space of the newspapers rash enough to attempt giving a full report of what he says. His last effort fills ten columns with the small type of the Louisville Courier-Journal. He says he was compelled to be "brief," but will soon make a set speech to his constituents. On this occasion he got far enough to nominate Millard Fillmore for President.

Speaking of the late canvass in Ohio, the Columbus State Journal says: "Grant's re-nomination was not made an issue, but his administration and the probability of his re-nomination were publicly discussed, and just as much so as though it was a direct issue. And the Republican State ticket was elected by a largely increased majority." And again: "Republican speakers during the campaign, almost without exception, made the point that the present administration was a most successful and popular one, and everywhere this was received with demonstrations of approval. The speech of Gov. Dennison before the Young Men's Republican Club in this city was a notable instance of this. The applause that followed the Governor's indorsement of the administration, and his prediction that Grant would be re-nominated and re-elected, was deafening and continuous. And everywhere the same spirit has been manifested."

BUTLER'S DUTCH GAP CANAL.—The Richmond Enquirer of a recent date says:

Dutch Gap Canal is now an object not only of historical but, also of practical interest to every traveler down the James river. Until quite recently the work was supposed to have been a failure. Butler made the necessary excavation, but was unable to turn the current of the river sufficiently to render the canal useful. The surging flood of last October removed the difficulty, and now steamers and ships of the larger kind may pass safely through it. Workmen are now widening and variously improving the opening, so as to secure benefits permanently. It may surprise many of our readers who have not looked into the matter closely to know that the canal seems only forty or fifty yards long, and when it is fully completed vessels will pass this short distance instead of being compelled to make a curve of seven miles, as formerly.

Hawkins in the Bosom of his Family.

It comes out on trial of Hawkins, the polygamist, that his domestic life for several years had not been remarkably blissful. On the contrary it was made very rough and thorny by Mrs. Hawkins No. 1, who from the time the devoted "saint" married the fresh young sewing woman of the family, Elizabeth Mears, to "raise up seed unto Israel," gave the Saint and Patriarch no peace. A correspondent of the New York Tribune at Salt Lake writes:

Evidently Mrs. Hawkins No. 1 managed to make the life of the saintly Hawkins anything but pleasant from this time forth. To this fact she testified in open court. In the presence of learned judges and eminent barristers, this good and much abused woman swore, not only in a technical sense, but in the sense ascribed to "our army in Flanders," that she lost her faith in the "damned doctrine of plurality" from the moment when she found herself deserted by her husband for the superior charms of that youthful hewer of the domestic wood and drawer of the family dish-water, Elizabeth Mears. Still she held on, concealing her grief from all but the husband—whose life, it is believed, this amiable lady managed to make sufficiently miserable—until the terrible day when No. 3—one Sarah Davis—succumbed to the charms of the irresistible Hawkins. This damsel was quite attractive in appearance, and, although far from diminutive in stature, she yet proved to be the last feather in the polygamous cap of this bird of prey, Hawkins, as well as the last one required to break the back and heart of that not too patient camel, No. 1. For five years she lived on alone, supported by her much wedded husband, but no longer sustaining toward him the wifely relation. All this time she lived in the hope and expectation that the man would yet abandon the recent fractions of himself and cleave once more unto that now forlorn segment with whom he had dwelt not unhappily for more than 15 years. When at last she had sufficiently realized the heart-sickness of a hope deferred, she sought at once the lawyers and sweet revenge which courts and justices hold in store. Then followed the complaint, the indictment, and the conviction. Her husband's lawyers suggested a compromise, and pictured the desolation of the family when the property should all be wasted in defending the suit; to which came the spirited rejoinder that she would prefer to enrich the lawyers rather than allow her husband to support his "outside women" on an equality with herself. In all the public proceedings she showed herself not only a match for Hawkins and an army of plural wives, but for bench and bar alike. Her triumph is complete. For her years of suffering she now has the satisfaction of seeing her husband incarcerated and his substance seized to pay court, expenses and lawyers' fees. She goes forth in poverty, to exist as best she may. Though she starves, her revenge at least is fed. Strange, but true it is, that in this community this first wife must live friendless and alone. She has dared to rebel against the sacred institution of plural marriage, and henceforth she meets "anathema!" If she has friends now, they must be of the "Gentile" faith. No true Mormon would give her food or shelter. Judging from her appearance in court, I do not think her presence would add materially to the happiness of any family. If her disposition was by nature sweet, the wonderful fermentive power of this patriarchal system is made apparent; for the "gall of bitterness" is as nothing compared with her present mental condition.

A Tammany Thief and his Democratic Supporters.

The New Haven (Conn.) Palladium of a recent date relates this:

During the session of 1870 Mr. Elbert A. Woodward did Connecticut the honor of representing Mr. Tweed in our State Senate. He was known then as now to have been a thief who had amassed a large fortune by plundering the tax-payers. Nevertheless this man, whose tastes were low and vulgar as becomed one who had risen from the position of Mr. Tweed's lacquey to that of his accomplice, was the delight of his Democratic associates. They drank his wine, quoted his jokes, and seriously canvassed the question of nominating him for Governor. The Register praised him and rejoiced over his election. He it was who insulted the State of Connecticut by inviting, in the name of his brethren, that horde of vulgar thieves, the American Club, the Governor and General Assembly to partake of Mr. Tweed's hospitality. And the scandalous invitation was accepted. How must those who associated with him feel, now that his infamies have been fully revealed? Have they the grace yet left to be ashamed of themselves?

The affidavit of Mr. Tilden, published yesterday, exposes the method by which Woodward abetted Tweed in robbing the taxpayers. In the course of three months he deposited three and a half millions in the Broadway bank. On one day he would draw a check and the very same day Mr. Tweed would lodge the same amount to his own credit. And so it went on till within less than four months Mr. Tweed had added nearly a million dollars to his bank account, every cent of which was stolen from the taxpayers. Meanwhile Woodward, the pet of the Connecticut Democracy, was investing in real estate around Norwalk, and the Democratic journals and orators were representing him as a benefactor to the town. It is now reported that he has fled, and it is known he has transferred his property to his wife. This man, proved to be a forger as well as a thief, was taken by the Democrats of Connecticut to their bosoms and elected to office. And they did not do it in ignorance. They must have known that he had not risen from poverty and obscurity to wealth and power by any legitimate means. They knew he was Mr. Tweed's tool, and it was for that and the wealth he had won by robbery, that they honored him.

RELATIVE VALUE OF BRICK VAULTS AND IRON SAFES.—The Chicago fire has done much to exhibit the relative value of iron safes and brick vaults as places for the safe-keeping of valuables. While the safes were comparatively worthless, the vaults generally preserved their contents in a perfect condition. Of course, the condition of the safes was due more or less to the intensity of the heat to which they were exposed. Some safes came out all right while others of the most improved manufacture when opened contained nothing but the charred remains or a handfull of cinders. There is not a safe in existence that could have withstood the ordeal in certain localities. Some of them, heretofore considered indestructible, were cracked asunder and the contents prematurely destroyed. The exterior walls are like so much rusty iron, and will chip off in great flakes, while the interiors of more than one of the larger safes are to-day so warm one's hand suffers when placed in contact with them. The conclusion unavoidably arrived at is that the best iron safe is not near so safe as a properly constructed brick vault.

There is a fair prospect that in tumbling down from his bad eminence, Tweed will drag Col. James Fisk, Jr., along with him. This brazen adventurer, who, to the disgrace of New York, owns judges who help him to plunder the public, seems to have been fool enough to have told some of his secrets to a woman with whom he has now quarreled. Hence the "Fisk-Mansfield" case, which the telegraph mentions daily.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS TOO LATE.—The Newcastle Chronicle tells the following story:

When in 1764 one of the friends of the Newcastle Chronicle sent for insertion the following advertisement, he little dreamt how long a space of time responding applications would be made: "Wanted, a middle-aged woman (who has been servant in genteel families, and can be well recommended for honesty), to take care of a single gentleman's house in the country. She must undertake cooking and setting out the table. A gardener is also wanted, who, having but a small garden to take care of, will be expected to assist occasionally in the house or stables. If a man and wife can undertake the above places, provided they are not encumbered with children, it will be more agreeable. Apply to the printer of this paper." Yesterday, in celebration of the centennary of the Chronicle, we distributed among our subscribers reprints of No. 1, published on the 24th March, 1764; and of the twenty-nine advertisements which it contained, the foregoing stood at the head. The sheet had not ... many hours when a respectable, worthy looking couple entered the publishing office, and, advancing to the counter, innocently inquired the address of the "single gentleman." All the establishment was at fault. Its "oldest inhabitant" could not remember the name of the advertiser. The rustic bachelor was unknown. No account stood against him in the books of the office. Time had written over him non est. He was clean gone; he, his genteel house and small garden, all were forgotten. And the honest applicants who offered themselves so unexpectedly in answer to this card, were apprised, to their astonishment, that they were 100 years too late.

EVIDENCES OF DR. ABORN'S SUCCESS

In the treatment of

CATARRH & NERVOUS DEBILITY.

TO THE AFFLICTED:—I wish to say that I have been afflicted for about fifteen (15) years with Nasal Catarrh. Of late it affected my throat and lungs and prostrated my whole system, so that I was scarcely able to pursue any business. I had tried several physicians without deriving the least benefit. In this seemingly hopeless condition, I applied to DR. ABORN about three weeks ago, and placed myself under his treatment, and I am most happy to state that I found a decided relief within five minutes after using his apparatus and medicines, and continued to improve. I am now cured of the cough and ... through my chest and body, and, in fact, both mentally and physically I feel like a new person. I have recovered from the nervous debility. The offensive odor from my head and breath, which was so annoying, has disappeared. I have gained about eight pounds in three weeks. The Doctor has accomplished more in three weeks than what I supposed it was ... to have done in as many months. Truly, M. DEAN, November 11, 1871. ... Portland, Or.

DR. ABORN ON NASAL CATARRH.

This is a chronic affection of the mucous membrane of the nostrils or the throat, originating in irritation or inflammation, and attended by more or less discharge. It is one of the most common, most disgusting, and finally, most destructive of disease incident to the variable climate of our northern latitude.

In its early stages catarrh often fails to attract the patient's attention, so trivial as it appears to be. This is a very unfortunate circumstance, because the most favorable period for treatment is thus unimproved, and because of the peculiar disposition of this disease to extend upward to the frontal sinuses, backward through the Eustachian tubes to the middle ears, and down through the larynx, trachea, and bronchia, to the air cells of the lungs.

The discharge from the affected part is at first a clear fluid, which may escape observation, unless it chance to be of a more than usually acrid character. As time goes on this gives place to a fluid that is yellow, and of a yellowish green color, and still later this may be succeeded by thick flakes or scales.

In all the more advanced stages the discharges are generally of an offensive odor, causing great annoyance to one's friends and to the patient himself, while his sense of smell remains. This annoyance from the odor becomes almost beyond endurance, when, as sometimes happens, the delicate bones of the nose become diseased.

Some cases early assume the character of Dry Catarrh. There is then a feeling of uneasiness, heat and stiffness in the nostrils, which are ... (one or both of them) closed by thickening of the mucous membrane, and thus a difficulty of breathing becomes a prominent symptom.

On examining the nostrils in Chronic Catarrh, with instruments specially adapted to that purpose, we find their lining membrane thickened and of a deeper color than in health. There are seen little points of ulceration, upon which the secretion becomes hardened and forms crusts. When these are picked off the diseased surface is irritated, and frequently bleeds profusely.

In each case of Catarrh the prominent symptoms are determined by the direction in which the disease extends. If this be upward there may be pain over and between the eyes, obstruction of the lachrymal ducts, causing the tears to flow over the cheeks, and possibly opthalmia—inflammation of the eyes. If backward, there will be thickening of the walls of the Eustachian tubes, and consequent tendency to their obstruction, inflammation of the middle ear, buzzing sounds in the head, and impairment of hearing. When the extension is downward, the voice becomes hoarse or whispering and unmanageable, cough comes on, with ... ration and emaciation, to be followed too often by Consumption and Death.

In cases where the bones of the nose become diseased, not only is the offensiveness of the breath increased, but there is a liability to serious personal deformities, among which are flattening of the nose.

The swallowing of catarrhal secretions deranges the functions of the stomach, causing indigestion and loss of appetite. Debility, paleness, lassitude, headache and disturbance of mind soon follow. In some instances the mental affection is one of irritability, the patient being unduly annoyed by all the little perplexities of life. In others, the prominent feeling is that of the melancholy or depression of spirits, when the invalid can see no hope for himself or his affairs.

Allusion has been made to the extension of Catarrh by continuity of surface along the natural air passages to the substance of the lungs, thus causing Consumption and Death. In this connection it should also be remembered that the air which enters the lungs of a catarrhal patient is, every breath of it, poisoned by exhalations from the foul secretions of the diseased surface. By such air the blood cannot be properly purified and made fit to impart healthy vigor in its unending circuit to all and every part of the animal mechanism. One would suppose that this consideration alone would be sufficient to induce every person thus afflicted to make early application for relief.

The treatment of Catarrh is in part constitutional, whereby the energies of the whole system are called to aid in expelling its destructive enemy. It is in part local, whereby the discharge is made less offensive, diminished and finally arrested, and whereby the ulcerated surface is healed and restored to its normal condition.

By means of new and ingenious apparatus, Dr. Aborn is able in Catarrh and all other affections of the respiratory organs, to apply his remedies directly to the desired localities. Treatment is thus made more efficient as well as less disagreeable. In many cases the first application of the topical treatment will change the character of the disease and materially purify the breath.

TUESDAY MORNING, NOV. 21, 1871.

Public Gambling in Washington Territory.

The Olympia Tribune publishes the full text of a bill introduced in the Legislature of Washington Territory which it says will pass, "authorizing Frank Clark, of Pierce county, to dispose of property in the Territory of Washington, by lottery or raffle, within a certain time." That paper prefaces the bill with the remark that, "Our Territory is in debt; its indebtedness is increasing from year to year; its credit is at a discount; its people already complain of heavy taxation, which must inevitably be increased unless some such means as those adopted in California are resorted to to meet the case."

On reading this bill, which is to be enacted into a law, we find that three several lotteries are to be authorized, and that Frank Clark is to bind himself to pay to the Territory twenty-five thousand dollars out of the proceeds thereof, which sum is to be used in paying off the debt of the Territory. A Committee of seven, headed by Gov. Salomon, is to be appointed to see that the conditions of the act are complied with.

We trust that the Legislature of Washington Territory will yet refuse to pass this bill. Can they afford to tarnish the name and corrupt the morals of their Territory by such an act? Do they want to start public gambling under the sanction and encouragement of law in all their towns and communities? How can the young be trained to avoid the evils of gaming, and taught to hold the practice in proper abhorrence, if the legislative power deliberately makes it lawful, and invites them to participate in it? Parental instruction, the efforts of the churches, the discipline and moral culture of the schools, will all be rendered abortive, and the morals of the whole community will receive a shock from which they will not recover for years.

In case this scheme be adopted and public gambling started under authority of law in Washington Territory an effort will doubtless be made to obtain a "lift" for it from the people of Oregon. Now it so happens that our laws on this subject are stringent, as they should be, and it is a felony to offer lottery tickets for sale within the limits of the State. We trust that in case this Washington Territory scheme goes on and these tickets are offered for sale here, the law will be rigidly enforced. California, bitterly repenting the act which has served as a precedent for all similar ones on the Pacific coast, is now enforcing her violated law, in the interest of public morals. Oregon, if occasion arises, will pretty certainly do the same thing.

Rainfall in California.

Rain tables published in California papers show remarkable variations in the quantity of rain that falls each year in that State. At Sacramento in 1849 the rainfall was 36 inches; in 1850, 4.7 inches; in 1851, 16.9 inches; in 1852, 36.3 inches; in 1853, 20 inches; in 1854, 19.6 inches; in 1855, 13.7 inches; in 1856, 10.4 inches. In 1869 the fall was 13.4 inches, and so far in 1871, 6.1 inches.

It will be seen from this exhibit that there is the greatest uncertainty in the rainfall of California. Some years it is superabundant, but in others it is so light as to be totally inadequate. In such a climate agriculture is a hazardous pursuit, and farmers of California have repeatedly found this out to their sorrow. No man knows when he has sown his fields whether he will find anything to reap at harvest time, and in some parts of the State the failure has been so disastrous as to make charity n[illegible]ry. Let those who complain that Oregon has too much rain think of these things. Our rains are our wealth. What would not California give if she could be made the recipient of our rains and rely every year upon their coming!

William Scott, of Lawrence, Mass., loved Miss Horn, of the same city, to distraction. Miss Horn reciprocated, but cruel relatives and other insurmountable obstacles opposed. Brought to the verge of insanity by impediments to the course of true love, William, chivalrous lover, proposed to the darling of his heart that they should both take poison and together leave this sad and hollow world. The suggestion pleased Miss Horn, so that the pair procured some poison, and, hand-in-hand, wended their way toward the public park one dark and gloomy night. There they talked of love and tenderness, of the sorrows of this world and the vanity of life. Miss Horn then swallowed her dose, but William, in the intensity of his emotion, forgot to take his own. She died, and he was left to sorrow alone for a brief space, but not long. He was arrested on a charge of manslaughter, was convicted by an unromantic jury, and sentenced by an unsentimental judge to three years hard labor in the penitentiary. It is feared that by the time he is released, all the poetry, sentiment, and romantic passion that once possessed, informed and irradiated his tender and feeling soul will be ruined, blasted, withered, crushed,—in short dead. William has evidently fallen on evil days and into the hands of men composed of coarse and common clay, who cannot appreciate the emotions of an heroic, chivalrous and passionate soul.

The United States Commissioner of Mining statistics, Mr. Raymond, gives the total product of gold and silver in the United States for 1870, at $66,000,000, California contributing $24,000,000 and Nevada $16,000,000 to this amount. In addition to the bullion exported and coined, a large amount of the precious metals is used in manufactories. Gold to the value of $9,000,000 to $13,000,000 is used annually by jewelers and others, a part of which is coin, however, while silversmiths and silverplaters melt up large quantities of fine silver bars. Mr. Raymond's estimates of the gold and silver production are higher than those which have been generally accepted; but he has evidently taken great pains to arrive at accurate conclusions, and he gives with clearness and at some length the methods by which he has reached the figures he assumes to be correct.

A. A. Sargent, of California, is a candidate for the United States Senate in that State and we trust will be elected. He is able, industrious and untiring. He it was who last year ably supported Senator Williams, of Oregon, in the fight against the Central Pacific Railroad Company and the owners of the Eugene Military Road grant in their effort to turn the road off at Eugene toward Humboldt and leave Southern Oregon and Northern California out in the cold in reference to railroads. In this matter Congressman Sargent stood opposed to Congressman Smith of this State, who, with the whole Democratic party of Oregon, was for the time subservient to the Central Pacific monopoly.

Friends in England will raise fifty thousand dollars to rebuild Rev. Robert Collyer's church at Chicago.

Has a Theft been Committed?

The Enterprise of Oregon City in its last issue intimates that the five per cent. proceeds of sales of public lands, that accrued during the Woods administration, were "stolen." This has been repeatedly hinted by the Democratic press. Why is not the proof of it published and measures taken to prosecute the guilty person or persons?

It is our own belief, from information that has come to our knowledge, that a sum of money arising from sales of public lands in Oregon and transmitted to the State some five years ago from Washington was stolen. This sum was from five thousand to seven thousand dollars, and we believe that the evidences of the theft have been for some time in the hands of the present State officials, who, instead of taking measures to recover the money and punish the guilty are putting off this duty in the hope of being able to use the matter for political capital in the next election.

Now this business is very simple. If a theft has been perpetrated it is exceedingly easy to trace it. Governor Grover and others know all about it. Democrats assert that they have known it a long time. The person or persons implicated are under bonds to the State and the money can be recovered if suit is commenced therefor. If there has been embezzlement the present State officials, who, it is intimated, have proof of it, are not only culpable but even criminal, for neglecting their plain duty. They are now among the ones to blame. They are shirking, neglecting or deferring the performance of an official duty simply for the reason that they think this matter will be a good thing to spring just before the election. Thus they are giving the guilty a chance to escape and increasing the danger that the money will not be recovered but that it will be utterly lost to the State.

If any person or persons connected with the Republican administration of this State have been dishonest or delinquent, we demand that they be punished. No Republican will attempt to shield them. But we would remind those whose duty it is, having knowledge of such wrongful act, to prosecute the guilty in the interest of justice and of the State revenues, that neglect in such a case is hardly less censurable than the original offense. Let there be a prosecution of the guilty before they escape and an effort to recover the money from sureties before the opportunity is lost.

The amount stolen by the Tammany ring during the last twenty months is variously estimated at from $50,000,000 to $80,000,000. The former is the lowest estimate made by any one. The Committee of Seventy make the amount about $65,000,000. But the New York Times tells the Committee that they have omitted to take into their calculation the deficits for the new year, amounting to many millions. These deficits were caused by the conduct of the ring in diverting money from public objects and applying it to their own schemes. The Times is confident that when everything is settled the stealings will be found to reach $80,000,000.

Boston is making great exertions to secure a portion of the western grain trade and is succeeding. That city is becoming an important point for the receipt and shipment of western wheat to Europe; accomplishing this through judicious railway combinations and connections. The completion of the Northern Pacific railway and more extensive connections with the commerce of the great lakes will enable her to accomplish much more in this direction. Boston hopes to disprove the idea that everything connected with western trade and foreign commerce must of necessity center at New York.

AN UNPREJUDICED PHYSICIAN INTERVIEWED.

Bold Opinions Truly Expressed.

POPULARITY IS NOT ALWAYS A proof of desert. Every newspaper man knows that. Many articles are engineered into temporary popularity that have no intrinsic merit whatever. It is an easy thing to make sweeping assertions and sow them broadcast in the columns of the public press. But there is a class of experienced and thoughtful birds not to be caught with chaff, like Captain Cuttle, they want "an opinion as is an opinion," in other words, the judgment of competent and disinterested authority, as a basis for their own.

Several of these cautious individuals having done us the honor to invite an expression of opinion in these columns on the properties of the much talked of Tonic known as PLANTATION BITTERS; we have taken the pains to obtain from a distinguished physician whose ability and integrity of purpose no one will venture to question, what may fairly be deemed a conclusive answer to the questions of our correspondents. Dr. Elias Kennedy Whitmarsh, as a surgeon, pathologist and chemist, has few superiors west of the Alleghanies, and the following conversation which occurred a few days ago between that gentleman and one of our staff, is offered, without comment, for the information of "whom it may concern."

REPORTER.—Have you any objection to state your views in relation to a medicinal preparation which has obtained great celebrity in this country? The object is to ascertain whether the reputation is deserved or not.

DR. WHITMARSH—If I know anything about the article, I'll tell you what I think of it. How is it named?

REPORTER—PLANTATION BITTERS.

DR. WHITMARSH—Well, it is a wholesome vegetable tonic.

REPORTER—Anything else?

WHITMARSH—Yes, it has a mild aperient property, and produces a salutary effect upon the liver when that organ is diseased.

REPORTER—It contains alcohol I understand—Santa Croix Rum.

DR. WHITMARSH—Of course it contains a diffusive stimulant. If it did not its medicinal ingredients would be comparatively inert. They are rendered operative by the alcoholic principle.

REPORTER—Supposing that theory to be correct, is Santa Croix Rum a good article for that purpose?

DR. WHITMARSH—The best I think. It is more nutritious and far less exciting than the spirits made from grapes or grain.

REPORTER—But are stimulants really necessary at all in medical treatment?

DR. WHITMARSH—Sir, if you had ever practiced medicine you would not ask the question. They are an essential portion of the materia medica. Every intelligent member of the profession knows that. The physician who denies it is either a hypocrite or a fool.

REPORTER—Do you consider a medicated stimulant like the PLANTATION BITTERS preferable to simple alcohol? In other words, would the Santa Croix Rum be as useful without the other ingredients as with them?

DR. WHITMARSH—Certainly not. Among those ingredients are Extract of Dandelion, one of the finest antibilious medicines I know of; Calisaya Bark, of all tonics the best; and Chamomile, an admirable stomachic. The remedial powers of these curatives is increased probably tenfold by the nutritive stimulant with which they are incorporated.

REPORTER—You seem to have a high opinion of the Bitters.

DR. WHITMARSH—I simply state facts, sir. You must draw your own conclusions.

REPORTER—May I ask if you ever prescribed PLANTATION BITTERS for your patients?

DR. WHITMARSH—I do, frequently. All that I have said to you is founded on my own experience. I never make positive statements on unsubstantial grounds.

REPORTER—I am sure of that. Excuse me for having trespassed so long on your valuable time. Good evening.

We presume the correspondents who have addressed us on the subject of PLANTATION BITTERS, will consider their questions satisfactorily answered by the remarks of Dr. Whitmarsh. jo24d3pTuThSaw6m

CITY.

MR. S. G. REED'S IMPORTED STOCK.—We find in the San Francisco Alta of the 15th the following notice of the stock purchased at the East by Mr. S. G. Reed of this city, and who is expected to arrive with them per steamer Oriflamme to-day:

"A day or two since there arrived in this city overland one of the finest lot of imported cattle ever seen on this coast, and owned by Mr. S. G. Reed of Portland, Oregon. Included among it are twenty-six head of imported short-horn Durhams, selected in England from the best families; also five pure Ayrshire cows of the celebrated milking breed of Scotland. Every one of these latter are prize winners, one of them having taken as many as eight prizes in Scotland during the past year. There are five thoroughbred Clydesdales, four mares, and a stallion; all of them noble specimens of draught-horses, and winners of many prizes in Scotland. There are some thirty or forty head of Berkshire and Essex pigs, mostly prize stock, and also thirty head of yearling Cotswold sheep, including among them the first prize ewes at the exhibition of the London Society this past year. Besides these, Mr. Reed has quite a collection of pure bred poultry, including Cochin China, Dark Bramahs, Dark Dorkins, English Pheasants and Gold Spangled Hamburgs.

"Among the short-horn Durhams is a yearling bull named "Governor General," who has been exhibited during the past four weeks at six different Fairs, and has been first on every occasion, beating bulls of all ages. He is indeed a beauty, and attracted much attention from the visitors, as did also a yearling heifer in the stall adjoining. Many of the heifers of this breed have taken several first prizes at exhibitions in England, Ireland and Scotland.

"One of the Berkshire sows has been quite a traveler and glories in the name of "Romford Belle." She was winner, during the past year, of the first sweepstake prizes at Limerick, Ireland; Wolverhampton, England; London, Canada West; Illinois; the $500 prize at Chicago; and the $1,000 sweepstake at St. Louis. She has now a litter of six young ones by Lord Clairmond's celebrated Berkshire boar "Victor."

"The stock is to be taken to Oregon by the next steamer, where Mr. Reed proposes to inaugurate a stock farm, where all parties can be supplied with thoroughbred stock. Mr. Reed owns a farm of nearly 3,000 acres about 18 miles from Portland, which will be used for this purpose.

"The herd, which altogether comprises exactly one hundred head, is, stabled, during their stay here, in the stables near the corner of Fifth and Howard streets, and yesterday was visited and reviewed by a large number of our prominent citizens, among others, Wm. Alvord, Mayor-elect; John Parrott, D. O. Mills, Gen. Miller, Capt. Cole S. B. Whipple, A. Hayward and George Howard; and one opinion was expressed regarding it, and that of a most favorable nature. The herd was brought here from Europe, in charge of William Watson, a Scotchman, and notwithstanding their long journey, appear in beautiful condition."

INTERESTING TO BOY BEGINNERS.—The boys of Portland are not exceptions to the general rule among boykind, in the matter of cultivating at the earliest possible age, all such manly graces and accomplishments as smoking, "chawing," swearing, etc., etc. We came upon a group yesterday of fours, sixes, sevens, etc., in the scale of age, each with a cigar stump or blackened clay pipe, and each puffing away as if all earthly happiness depended upon expedition. The little rascals were fully as profane, too, in their conversation, which was carried on by jerks between puffs, as would have been expected of grown up graduates in the manly vices. Admonition don't go for much with these sort of "shavers," as we have had occasion two or three times to know. They generally want to know "who is doing this —ing?" or "if it costs you a cent?" Suppose we were to take a little more care to warn their boys against the habit, would there not be less of it among the mere youths? Apropos, we find the following statement of facts found in an investigation by a distinguished physician: Of 38 boys from nine to fifteen, 27 showed clearly the presence of nicotine poison; in 3 there was heart disease; 4 had ulceration of the mucous membrane; in 8, the blood was deteriorated; and 12 had serious disorders of the vital circulation, the direct producing cause of minor diseases, physical and mental. Let the boys put that in their pipes and smoke it.

A COURT HOUSE MUDDLE.—The good people of Washington county have undertaken to build a Court House at the county seat, Hillsboro. The Commissioners have authorized the enterprise and the contract has been let. It seems, however, that certain parties who are not interested in Hillsboro corner lots or otherwise, and who, it is barely possible, may be interested in an other town site, have concluded that such an expenditure as is involved in the building of a Court House ought not to be made just yet. They have ideas about "commercial centers" just as the Puget Sounders have notions about the terminus; and as the latter believe that the terminus is going to be the end of everything, so the former believe that the "commercial center" is going to be the center of everything in that part of the world. They urge that the Court House ought to be in the center, and ought not to be built till the center shall be found. From all which, we conclude that the opposition to the erection of a Court House at Hillsboro, comes from people who live not a thousand miles from the town of Cornelius. It is said that an injunction will be applied for to restrain the authorities from proceeding with the building till the "commercial center" shall be fully discovered. Meantime, the contractors will go ahead, and the muddle will have time to be more thoroughly worked up.

THE RELIEF FUND.—Mayor Wasserman has received from Mr. I. W. Case $114, contributed by the citizens of Astoria to the Eastern relief fund, as follows:

A. H. Hinman	$25 00	Jo. Simpson	$2 50

The Ladies' Relief Society of Portland, through Mrs. D. W. Williams, Treasurer, have contributed $10 for the relief of Michigan.

HOTEL FOUNDATION BEGUN.—Workmen commenced yesterday to drive the piles for the foundation of Halsey's hotel, at the corner of F and First street. We are informed that it will require nearly one thousand piles. The drivers can, therefore, drive away, with the comfortable assurance of an all winter's job.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.—A gentleman from Washington county informs us that a Mr. Caleb Autrim, living a few miles from Hillsboro, was accidentally killed last Friday. He was engaged in stripping bark from a large fir tree, for firewood, when a large piece of bark fell upon him and killed him instantly.

FUNERALS.—The burial services of Mr. C. O. Clark were attended yesterday by about one hundred Odd Fellows of Hassalo Lodge and Ellison Encampment, and a large concourse of citizens. The burial of Mr. J. Levy in the afternoon was attended also by a large number of friends.

A HANDY THING TO HAVE.—We have received a lot of copies of the published "Freight Tariff" on the Central Pacific railroad, containing the through rates of freight from San Francisco to eastern cities. If anybody wants them, let them say so.

SOCIABLE.—The ladies of the Baptist church will have a Sociable at the basement of their church, next Friday evening. No charge will be made for admission, and all are invited. The ladies will provide lunch for all who may wish it.

NO SESSION.—In consequence of the continued indisposition of Judge Deady, resulting from the accident to his eye, there was no business transacted in the U. S. Circuit Court, yesterday. The court was called and adjourned till next Monday.

THE G STREET IMPROVEMENT.—The fill of G street across Couch's Lake is rapidly approaching completion. When done, it will be the most considerable improvement of that kind, in proportion to its length, ever made in this city.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

MONDAY, Nov. 20th, 1871.

E. B. Dufur vs Thomas Cully; action for damages; judgment for costs, on motion of defendant, in accordance with verdict of jury.

L. M. Starr vs Francis Brown; action on account; judgment by default against defendant for $1,322 60.

F. L. Tileston vs W. T. Shanahan and Wm. Wadhams; action on bond; defendants allowed until Saturday next to plead.

Barney Trainor, guardian, vs Domange & Lane; suit to set aside deed; default entered against defendant Domange.

State of Oregon vs Wm. J. Daly; murder in the second degree; demurrer to indictment overruled and defendant pleaded "not guilty."

State of Oregon vs. John Foster; seduction; defendant pleaded "not guilty."

State of Oregon vs Michael Flanagan; larceny in dwelling house; defendant pleaded "not guilty."

W. H. Musgrave vs. C. M. Wiberg, executor; action for damages; judgment for costs in favor of defendant.

E. B. Gardner vs Erwin Burke; damages; trial by jury; verdict, $60 for plaintiff.

State of Oregon vs John Wilson and D. Stimson; larceny from the person; verdict, "guilty as charged."

State of Oregon vs Wm. O'Connor; larceny; portion of the testimony heard.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The United States District Court will convene to-day.

The steamship Oriflamme will be due here this afternoon.

J. Crabb was fined ten dollars yesterday for going through a show window and then backing out.

John Lupran for getting drunk and pinching a "pretty waiter girl" was fined $10, yesterday. Naughty John.

The track of the Oregon Central Railroad has been laid only about ten miles, instead of fourteen as heretofore reported.

Van Tassel, the original "Hungry Brother," has returned to the city, and as usual he made a prompt call upon the Police Judge.

HIGH-PRICED BOOTS.—A man who gives his name as John Thomas, kept his eyes open last Saturday to see what he should see. He saw in several places, painted distinctly on the sidewalk and elsewhere, "Go to Barman's for your Clothing." He concluded to go to Barmans. He went. Barman was busy attending to customers; so John concluded not to interrupt him. Seeing a pair of boots that he suspected belonged to himself, he took them along, without first having had any conversation with Barman. Barman saw John do it and he went for John. The upshot of the matter was, that the transaction was referred to Judge Denny for an arbitration, and the latter charged John $100 for the boots. That's how John happens to have taken lodgings at the county jail for fifty days.

IMPROVEMENTS ON THE OTHER SIDE.—The certainty of accomplishment of large enterprises now in contemplation in Holladay's Addition to East Portland, has already had the effect to enhance prices there. Among some of the improvements now under way in that addition is one hotel by Ben Holladay, 4 houses by Dr. Glisan, a new Congregational Church and a large fine residence by Mr. Cunningham, Secretary of the O. & C. R. R. Co. It is understood that several other parties are preparing to build in the spring. We hear of an important enterprise which we are not at liberty at present to mention, that will, if carried on as now it is expected it be, will further greatly stimulate the growth of that part of East Portland.

IN A TERRIBLE STATE.—North Front street, from D to F is in a terrible state of dilapidation and will soon call for the intervention of private enterprise. The plank roadway, always too narrow, has been worn till the planks are broken; in many places into splinters, and, in other places it is doubtful just how far below the "established grade" one might have to dig in the mud to find the original roadway. In the course of a few days every driver will need the services of a pilot, if he would get through without being stranded.

CRIMINAL TRIALS.—The Circuit Court commenced yesterday upon the criminal docket, and two defendants charged with larceny from the person were found worthy of a berth in the penitentiary. Another party charged with larceny was arraigned and his trial was about half through at the adjournment of the court last evening. Foster, indicted for seduction will probably be placed on trial this afternoon.

JUVENILE FAIR.—The children's fair to come off at the Taylor street M. E. Church on Wednesday evening, is an event that is just now occupying the minds of quite a number of children and adults also, and promises to be an enjoyable affair. The proceeds are to form a little fund with which the children expect to be able to relieve the wants of some of the destitute ones in our own community.

BALL.—The second annual ball of the Independent German School Association took place last evening. Several circumstances conspired to make the attendance small, but those who did attend seemed to enjoy the occasion highly.

DANCING PARTY.—Mine host of the American Exchange will give a social dancing party Wednesday evening. They always manage to have a pleasant time on such occasions, and we do not think this will prove an exception.

THE UPPER RIVER.—The recent rise in the river has enabled the boats to ascend the upper river as far as Corvallis. One of the largest boats of the Company went to Albany and back last week.

ALMANAC.—McCormicke almanac for 1872 has been issued. It contains about the usual statistics for Oregon and Washington, and in this respect, will be congenial as a book of reference.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

PAPER BAGS.—The latest addition to the industries of our city is a factory for the manufacture of paper bags, which have been heretofore imported in large quantities. Mr. G. C. Perret, Stark street, between Front and First, proposes to furnish a home manufactured article, as good, and at as low rates as the imported—encourage him.

DISSOLUTION.—The attention of all parties interested is called to the notice of dissolution of partnership between Philip Saunders and S. S. Bailey; the formation of a new partnership between Bailey & Plumey and the assumption by the latter of the debts of the old firm.

HALLET, DAVIS & CO'S PIANOS.—Read the testimonials of the gentlemen you all know, in the new advertisements to-day, and then go to Shanahan's and see them.

WORK of every description in the house finishing line will be done at short notice to the best of satisfaction.
PAUL RICHTER.

As S. L. Stone is closing out at cost his fancy goods, toys and willow ware, this is the last chance to buy cheap.

Kris Kringle's headquarters is at S. L. Stone's, next door to the Postoffice.

S. L. Stone is giving more toys and fancy goods for six bits than any house in town does for one dollar.

Boss TWEED and others of the Tammany Ring have been stirred up very lively of late, but that is nothing compared with the excitement caused by Kohn & Fishel, who have stocked their large clothing establishment, No. 91 Front street, with goods for winter wear to suit all classes, not only in style but in price. Seeing is believing, so go and examine their stock.

TESTIMONIAL.

We the undersigned having been the recipients of the services of Mrs. M. O. White in teaching the science of Music on the Pianoforte, take pleasure in giving a hearty testimonial that we have employed her in our families as a teacher of her "New Method of Instruction," and that it has proven superior to any method we have ever known. And that although the first cost may be a trifle greater than some others, we believe it to be in the aggregate much cheaper, beside being a great economy in point of time. We, therefore, take pleasure in recommending her to the patronage of all who may be desirous of obtaining a musical education, as a very superior instructor.

To those who desire to know more about it before increasing any expense, we give a cordial invitation to call at our homes and interview her pupils.

PERKINS & HOUSE'S SAFETY LAMPS

It is perfectly non-explosive. The light is better than is produced by any other lamp. I believe it to be true economy in view of the safety, the quality and quantity of the light produced, and the durability of this lamp, to throw away all other kinds and use this only.

I know it to be by far the best light we have ever used in our family. I know of nothing that can compare with it. I prefer it to any gas burner I have ever seen. For safety, for economy, and for the perfection of the light, it deserves to come into universal use.

Arrest Decay.

When a plant or a tree begins to decay it must needs die. It cannot be revitalized. But it is not so with human beings. A human ruin can be repaired, strengthened, restored, though a brown leaf or a withered blade of grass can never be made green again. In the autumn of life, or even in its winter, when nature seems to be giving away under the pressure of years, it is still possible to retard the progress of decay, and to lend to age more than its wonted vigor. As a means of promoting this object, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is unquestionably the most potent of all restoratives. It will not make the old young, but it will prevent, lesson, or sooth the infirmaties which are the usual accompaniments of the decline of life. For debility and lack of nervous power, from whatever cause arising, it is the medicine that of all others before the world, best deserves the name of a specific. In purity, in invigorating properties, in its adaptation to weak stomachs and feeble organizations, it has no competitor among the tonics of the pharmacopoeia, nor among proprietary remedies. Besides its strengthening principle, it possesses regulating properties of the highest order, and as an anti-bilious medicine is far preferable to any of the preparations containing mercury. Time has shown that for physical decay, nervous debility, dyspepsia, bilious disorders, and intermittent fever, Hostetter's Bitters is a remedy without a rival. This is the season of the fall of the leaf; let it remind the old, the feeble, the sickly, to invigorate and regulate their systems with this great vegetable tonic and alterative.

NEW YORK
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY!
PURELY MUTUAL!

ASSETS..........$17,000,000!
ISSUED 9,925 POLICIES IN 1870.
Insuring Over $27,000,000!

WM. H. BEERS, Vice President and Actuary. MORRIS FRANKLIN, President.

AMONG THE ADVANTAGES OFFERED BY THE NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY are:—

1st. PURE MUTUALITY, so that the entire surplus earnings over the actual cost of insurance is returned to the policy holders who are the only members.

2d. AGE, having been organized in 1845. It has the benefit of the experience of a quarter of a century, and members are thus guaranteed from all doubtful experiment in the method of conducting its business.

3d. STABILITY AND PERPETUITY shown by the accumulation of a capital of Seventeen Millions of Dollars, after paying all losses promptly, and returning large dividends to its members. It has now an income of over Seven Millions of Dollars, and the interest on its investments, with premium on gold, &c., has been sufficient during the past two years to pay accruing losses.

4th. NON-FORFEITURE OF POLICIES. It originated the system of non-forfeiture of policies, and to it the public are indepted for a feature so favorable to the insured.

5th. SUICIDE does not cause a forfeiture of the policy, that being considered an evidence of insanity, and insanity the result of disease.

6th. DIVIDENDS. Its dividends are declared annually, and are available immediately as cash in payment of premiums. Many companies declare their premiums annually, but do not pay them till several years thereafter; others defer their declarations for two, three or four years from the time the policy commences. In this Company a party always has a dividend which can be used in the payment of the second and all subsequent annual premiums.

7th. ITS DIVIDEND SYSTEM is the "Contribution Plan," by which each member is charged with the exact cost of his insurance, and receives back his surplus payments. These dividends can remain with the Company, participating in its earnings, and be used at any subsequent period in the payment of premiums.

8th. LIBERALITY IN SETTLEMENT OF LOSSES. Experience has shown that cases arise where policies, although EQUITABLY claims, are not LEGALLY so. The records of this Company bear many acknowledgments from widows and relatives of deceased members of its liberality and fairness in settlement of all such losses. There being no stockholders in the Company to share its profits, interests adverse to policy-holders cannot possibly arise, the Trustees simply occupying the position of arbitrators between the members, with no inducement to take from one and give to another.

ÆTNA
OF HARTFORD, CONN.
FOUNDED IN THE YEAR 1820.
Adopted Mutual System in the year 1861.

ACCUMULATED CAPITAL OVER..........$16,000,000.
ITS ANNUAL INCOME OVER..........6,000,000.
WHOLE NUMBER OF POLICIES ISSUED TO DATE, NEARLY..........100,000.
NUMBER OF POLICIES ISSUED IN 1870..........11,217.

THE ÆTNA RANKS AS ONE OF THE FIRST COMPANIES IN THE LAND!
IN INCOME, IN ASSETS, IN NUMBER OF POLICIES, IN AMOUNT INSURED, IN SOLIDITY AND STRENGTH, IN SOUNDNESS, CHEAPNESS, PROMPTNESS AND SUCCESS.

THE AMOUNT OF DIVIDEND A COMPANY CAN PAY ITS INSURED, DEPENDS UPON THE RATES charged for insurance, the AMOUNT of business done, the EXPENSE of doing it, the INTEREST on its investments, the CARE exercised in the selection of its risks, and the TIME when such dividends are paid. In regard to these, as also all other points, the ÆTNA is unsurpassed in advantages by any other Insurance Company in the United States.

The New York Insurance Monitor says of the Ætna:—"No Life Insurance Company ever achieved so complete a success as this popular institution. Its popularity is altogether unprecedented in the annals of commercial enterprise in this country."

The New York Independent says of the Ætna Life:—"It is to-day one of the soundest and most reliable Insurance Companies in the United States—every dollar of its assets well secured, more than providing for all liabilities; and it eminently deserves a still greater patronage and the unhesitating confidence of the public."

No one that has ever visited this body of Land but what will say that it is the MOST ELIGIBLE for SUBURBAN RESIDENCES of any ever offered in this market, the land having a gradual slope from the River back to SEVENTEENTH STREET, there being scarcely any Block in the entire tract but what a

Fair View of the City of Portland and Willamette River

Can be had. Another advantage this Property will have for Residences; no high water will ever affect the drainage of the city.

The Oregon and California Railroad Company's New Ferry Boat is now making Regular Trips from the Foot of F street, Couch's Addition, to the Foot of Oregon street, Holladay's Addition.

IMPROVEMENTS TO BE MADE:

Aside from gigantic Improvements now in contemplation by the Railroad Company, in the construction of Wharves, Warehouses and Machine Shops, quite a number of citizens will commence erecting fine Residences and Business Houses; also, Street improvements, under contract, by grading and planking Holladay Avenue its entire length, to connect with the Sandy Road. We can say that at least a Half Million Dollars will be expended in Permanent Improvements on this Addition the present season.

TERMS OF SALE—40 per cent. CASH down, deferred payments, six and twelve months, with interest at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum.

NO QUESTION AS TO TITLE

The Title to this property is undisputed, being a portion of the Donation Land Claim of Jacob Wheeler and wife. United States Patent issued, and conveyed by said Wheeler and Wife to Geo. W. Weidler.

Parties desiring to invest will find Maps and Plats of the property at our Office, or at the Office of Messrs. FERRY, RUSSELL & WOODWARD, and other LAND AGENCIES in the city.

The following article on the Coffee market from the New York Shipping List is of peculiar interest at the present time owing to the rapid advance in our market and that of the East:

The recent extraordinary rise in the price of Coffee has produced much discussion in commercial circles. The price of good Rio in cargo, for instance, has within a few weeks advanced from 11½c to nearly 17c ₩ lb gold. Other descriptions of Coffee have risen nearly as much. A glance at the history of the Coffee trade and at the influences which have brought about the recent changes in price will be interesting at this time, when the sudden and great advance is produced by a scarcity of Coffee. Is it well known that news from Brazil, the chief producing country, that the legislature has passed a bill for emancipating the slaves

The abolition of slavery in the ... West India ... the ... 1835 the West Indies, not including ... produced ... the Dutch East Indies produced 25,000 tons. The total production of the world was 42,000 tons. In 1841, the proportion was—West Indies, 20,000; Dutch East Indies, 32,000—Total product 275,000 tons. In 1865, the change of relations appears still more remarkable: West Indies, 8,000; Dutch East Indies, 96,000—total 242,500 tons.

The West India plantations were long neglected by their owners, who lived in Europe, leaving them to overseers. Coffee culture requires constant attention and cheap labor. It is not strange, therefore, that it sought more congenial regions. The government supervision and the ... labor of Java and Ceylon ... well suited ... and Padang, the Dutch East India Company ... the best Coffee at the cheapest rates. ... from a production of 48,000 cwt in 1837 to ... in 1851, and ... the ... devastating storms, fluctuated a good deal more in supplying the markets. The lowest point reached was 15,000 tons in 1843, and the highest was 77,000 tons in 1856; the average yearly product has been, for consecutive periods of years, from 1831 to 1871, has been 37,000, 58,... 60 and 65,000 tons respectively.

The Brazils, with abundant black labor, in the meantime rose to ... in the Coffee market. Beginning with 1821, the average production per year during the four following periods of ten years, was: 39,000, 49,000, 97,000 and 144,000 tons. The average then fell off to 138,000 tons during the seven years after 1861.

Among the Coffee-producing countries near the United States the production of Sugar has been encroaching in a remarkable manner on that of Coffee. The value of sugar only ... on the plantation in 1841, has been quadrupled since that time, while the value of Coffee has only been doubled. Two influences have tended to the advance ... in the ... Indies already mentioned and the depreciation of gold. In Cuba, if we except the Santiago district, Coffee cultivation has ceased altogether and in other Islands, except in Porto Rico, it has continued with varying and ... in results.

This change of the field of production is of very important fact. When the production was scattered over the world we were less subject to the chances of a short crop, because the local influences of one part of the world would not be felt in another. Now, however, the production is ... in the Brazils and in Java and the Islands of the Indian Ocean. A favorable or unfavorable season in any one of these three Coffee-raising countries produces a marked effect in the supply and price of the staple. To this ... of fluctuation must be added the uncertainties as to the renewal of the Dutch East India Company's charter. If the charter is not renewed labor complications in Java will follow; the auction sales may cease, and the vessels of all nations will come into competition with those of the Dutch merchants, which are now employed in regular order. This would produce irregularity in the supply.

It is an interesting fact that in Europe the consumption of Coffee has increased slowly; varying with the price and ... the ... of ... pound for each person in England to eleven pounds in Holland.

In our own country the consumption in 1821 was one pound ... each person; in 1830, ... pounds; in 1861, eight and a half pounds. Our total consumption in 1842 was 67,000 tons. In 1862 it was only 50,000 tons, and last year it was 124,000 tons. In 1861, Europe consumed 156,000 and the United States, 75,000 tons—total 262,000. In 1867 the proportion was as follows:—Europe, 252,000; United States, 96,000—total, 374,000. In 1870:—Europe, 347,000; United States, 124,000—total, 471,000 tons. If our population numbers one hundred millions in the year 1900, as many predict that it will ... eight pounds) 357,000 tons, of Coffee. The consumption in this country has rapidly increased of late, in account of the lower duty, and the greater demand of ... is the Southern States. This ... is ... Rio. The increased demand among the whites is mostly for Java and Maracaibo. The consumption will be checked, of course, by the rise in value.

As emancipation is now imminent in the Brazils, we must be prepared for a low production in the future, especially if the slaves are suddenly liberated. If the Coffee-production of a country is once interrupted it requires time to fill the vacancy in the market, because the Coffee tree does not begin to bear until its fifth year. High values produced by interruption are more permanent, therefore, in the Coffee trade than in any other, except in the case of certain spices. The estimates of the short crops, however, which are now made and published must not be taken with too much credulity, as the range of area under cultivation is so large that it is impossible to judge of the crop with accuracy. The lowest estimates of the deficiency of the crop now given by intelligent ... parts of the ... are as follows:—For the Brazils, 70,000 tons; for Java, 20,000; for Ceylon, 10,000—a total estimated deficit of 100,000 tons.

Produce Market.

WHEAT—Owing to the uncertainty of advices from San Francisco and Liverpool, shippers are not willing purchasers even at our quotations. We give above the daily receipts for October. We quote market at the nominal price of $2 00@2 35 ₩ cental, sacked.

FLOUR—Stocks on hand show a gradual increase, though the outgoing steamers will take several very large lots. The amount awaiting shipment to Victoria and Puget Sound is from 1,000 to 2,000 barrels, which will lessen stocks very perceptibly. We quote market for extra $7 50 ₩ bbl, and superfine $6 50@7. There is quite a call for the grade a shade less than the superfine, which is being turned out by the Imperial Mills.

OATS—Market shows no change from last quotations. We quote market at $2 45@2 65 ₩ cental, sacked.

EGGS—Market continues to rule at 45@47½c ₩ doz.

POTATOES—Owing to the continued scarcity of choice California and Oregon, one of our leading firms has chartered a schooner in San Francisco to proceed to Humboldt Bay to load 2,500 sacks of choice for this market. We quote choice Oregon at $1 65@2 ₩ 100 lbs in jobbing lots. For inferior qualities prices are more or less nominal.

General Merchandise.

RICE—We note a continued demand for No. 1, ex Garibaldi, at 9½c in jobbing lots. We quote the market to jobbing lots: No. 1, 9½c; No. 2, 8¾@9½c. Table, 10@11c.

SUGARS—Stocks of Hawaiian very light, with an active trade demand. Our San Francisco exchanges report market there in the same condition. We quote the market here in jobbing lots for Hawaiian at 9½@13½c ₩ lb.

CITY ADVERTISEMENTS.

Ordinance No. 1108.

AN ORDINANCE TO REGULATE THE STORAGE and sale of Gunpowder, and other explosive materials.

The City of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. No person shall keep or offer for sale any gunpowder in any building, store or place in the City of Portland, without having first obtained a license therefor.

Section 2. The license for selling gunpowder shall be five dollars per quarter, to be issued as other licenses are issued, under the provisions of Ordinance 984, entitled "An Ordinance to impose and regulate licenses in the City of Portland."

Section 3. No person shall receive, keep or store, or aid or assist any person in receiving, keeping or storing gunpowder, in a larger quantity than five pounds, in or into any building, or upon any premises, unless the person receiving, keeping or storing the same is duly licensed to sell gunpowder.

Section 4. No person or persons duly authorized to sell gunpowder, as hereinbefore provided, shall keep, store, or have in any one place, more than twenty-five pounds of powder, which shall be kept in an air-tight, metallic vessel marked with the word "Gunpowder," in plain Roman letters, not less than three inches in hight and of proportionate width, which vessel shall be placed, or kept, at all times, conspicuously in view near the entrance of the premises where kept, and convenient for removal therefrom.

Section 5. Upon the front of every building or premises where powder is kept, there shall be kept in a conspicuous place a sign with the word "gunpowder," painted thereon in Roman letters, not less than three inches in hight.

Section 6. No person shall convey, cause to be conveyed, or assist in conveying in any vehicle any gunpowder, unless the same shall be securely packed in close packages, nor unless such packages shall be securely covered while in or on the vehicle.

Section 7. No vessel shall be allowed to remain at any wharf more than twenty-four hours with gunpowder on board, except such as may be kept for ship's use, and if such vessel shall be at the wharf over night, a watchman shall be kept on duty on board all night. All gunpowder landed or placed on any wharf, sidewalk, street or public way for forwarding or shipment shall be forwarded or shipped immediately after it shall be so landed or placed.

Section 8. The provisions of this Ordinance shall be deemed to apply to "Giant Powder," "gun cotton" or any other explosive substance having an explosive power equal to that of ordinary gunpowder.

Section 9. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction before the Police Judge, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the city jail not less than two nor more than twenty days, or both, at the discretion of the Police Judge.

Section 10. The officers of the Fire Department and Police are directed to see that the provisions of this ordinance are enforced and to make complaint before the Police Judge for the violation of its provisions.

Section 11. All ordinances or parts of ordinances conflicting herewith are hereby repealed.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars ... in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and ... who, with bogus sworn-to certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became doctors too lazy too work at their trades.
